ANNOUNCEMENTS

AUDITORIUM William Nigh and Violet Palmer in The Blue Streak Feature Photodrama for Today and Saturday-A Fox Comedy and Mutual Weekly Complete the Programme.

"The Blue Streak" a Fox Feature Film which will be shown at the Au-ditorium theatre today and Saturday, is the first film made for William Fox by William Nigh. Mr. Nigh and Vi-clet Palmer, a newly discovered film artiste, are starred in the production. The character known as "The Blue The character known as "The Blue Streak" a dissipated youth, played by William Nigh, is cast out by his father. He goes West and become a train robber. He and his men enter a saloon just as a gambler is to wed the proprietor's daughter, the part played by Violet Palmer. The "Streak" shoots up the place and steals the girl. At a mountain cabin the "Streak At a mountain cabin the "Streak relents kidnapping the girl and finds he loves her. When the sheriff arrives he prepares to surrender but she runs to him and begs him to flee with her. He lifts her behind him and they

The "Streak" and his little wife return to his father a new man. Mr. Nigh wrote the scenario of the film as well as directed it. The charfilm as well as directed it. The char-acters are remarkably well drawn and played by a very capable cast. A rip-roaring Fox comedy in two parts called An Aerial Honeymoon and a Mutual Weekly complete the pro-sram. There will be four shows Sat-urday—d:30, 3, 7 and 8:30.

A large commercial company with minimum capital of 277,000 people sterling has been formed at Helsing borg to trade between Sweden, France Russia, the United States and the Argentine. The company will import foodstuffs to Sweden and export Swedish industrial products.

Danish newspapers are not enthusiantle about the plan, dut to the initiative of a Danish doctor, of accommodating 15,000 German children in Denmark. At a time when food is scarce and the Germans are sinking cargoes of foodstuffs for Denmark the plan seems to several Copenhagen papers ill-advised and even fantastic.
